

Apply
Stamp

AROHE EIGHTH BIENNIAL CONFERENCE

Transforming Retirement: Re-writing Life's Next Chapter

August 14–16, 2016
University of Washington, Seattle

AROHE
Transforming Retirement
Association of Retirement Organizations in Higher Education

Conference Registration

Register early for discounted rates:

	AROHE Member	Non-member
6/15	$260	$360
6/16–7/15	$360	$460

For other rates, registration details and AROHE membership, visit arohe.org

Accommodations

The Silver Cloud Inn at University Village

Conference rates guaranteed until 7/22
$199–$209 per night

Single or double occupancy for up to three days before/after conference

Complimentary full breakfast, free parking, hotel shuttle for local trips. (Banquet and conference transportation is provided from hotel.)

UW residence hall

Two-night package guaranteed until 6/10
$218.23 single | $144.73 double (per person)

Two nights & two full breakfasts.

In-room bathrooms, small rooms, single beds (two per room).

Fifteen-minute pleasant walk to campus conference site. (Banquet transportation is provided from residence hall.)

Rooms on a space-available basis 6/11–7/22

More on accommodations, reservations:
arohe.org/2016-conference-details

Transforming Retirement: Re-writing Life's Next Chapter

How do we engage the largely untapped resource of late career and retired faculty and staff for the benefit of their institutions, themselves and society at large? Join us as we transform our vision of retirement and re-write life's next chapter.

Combine this conference with a trip to the Pacific Northwest, by land, sea or air. See Seattle's local wonders and the Puget Sound region. Explore Portland, OR and Vancouver BC, both three hours away by car.

Why attend?

- Learn what's coming in retirement and what it can mean on your campus
- Network with campus administrators and retirement association leaders
- Build Partnerships with peers to support your continued work

Who should attend?

- Staff administrators and faculty leaders in academic affairs, HR, development, continuing education
- Retired/emeritus faculty and staff association leaders and members
- Administrators and retirees who want to start new retiree associations

Toolkit for funding support

Download our toolkit guide to request support at arohe.org

AROHE

Transforming Retirement
Association of Retirement Organizations in Higher Education

Sunday, August 14

1:00–4:00 Check-in/Registration at hotel or residence hall

5:00–8:00 Reception and banquet: Panoramic Center, Beacon Hill

Monday, August 15

9:00–10:15 Transforming Retirement—The Big Picture: What's Coming and Why
Fernando Torres-Gil

10:45–12:15 ROUND 1 CONCURRENT SESSIONS:
Transforming Retirement Programs and Services

12:15–1:15 Lunch

1:15–2:45 ROUND 2 CONCURRENT SESSIONS:
From Surviving to Thriving: Strengthening Status and Roles of Retirees and Associations for a Greater Campus Voice

3:15–4:45 Resource Exchange Fair and Refreshments
Discuss new programs and policies with presenters

Evening Dine-arounds

Tuesday, August 16

9:00–10:15 Universities as Models, Facilitators and Champions of Transformed Retirement
Carole Goldberg

10:45–12:15 ROUND 3 CONCURRENT SESSIONS:
Advocacy: Building Strategies to Transform Retirement on Your Campus

12:15–1:15 Lunch

1:15–3:15 Panel and Discussion: Visions for the Future

3:15–4:30 AROHE business meeting

Featured Speakers

Fernando Torres-Gil is an internationally recognized authority on aging and public policy. He is Adjunct Professor of Gerontology at USC; Professor of Social Welfare and Public Policy and Director of the Center for Policy Research on Aging at UCLA.

Carole Goldberg is Vice Chancellor of Academic Personnel at UCLA. Formerly Associate Dean of the School of Law, Chair of the Academic Senate, and member of the Council on Academic Personnel.

Concurrent Sessions

Designed for both administrators and retiree leaders, these breakout sessions vary by topic and focus on rewriting campus retirement programs and services, strengthening the value of retirees with campus administration and planning strategies to advocate for change.

Network Café

At a movable 'Network Café' you can take time out to confer with regional and organizational peers and strategize about the future of retirement on your campus.

Current Conference Sponsors

Belmont Village

Collette Travel

Era Living

University of Washington Retirement Association

UW Alumni & Constituent Relations

All sponsors recognized at conference, on website and in conference program.

Resource Exchange Fair

Talk with presenters at information tables about current programs and get ideas for changing retirement on your campus.

Connect with:

- University administrators about new policies
- Retirement association leaders starting new programs
- Researchers sharing data to shape retirement policies
- Non-profit innovators in aging
- Sponsors changing their approaches for today's retirees

Are you trying something new that addresses a changing retirement? Apply to be a Resource Exchange presenter: arohe.org/2016

AROHE
Transforming Retirement
Association of Retirement Organizations in Higher Education

arohe.org
email: info@arohe.org
phone: 213-740-5037